

Considering an Alternative Way to Sell Your House Certainly this is not for everybody. The question is only, is it right for you? Question 7 of 7

DO YOU LIKE TO SAVE MONEY?

Some home-sellers are right now saying, “trick question!”. But it really isn’t. For the past few days, we’ve been asking about things other than the bottom line. The answers to those questions are vitally important. Saving money is work and can be intimidating. Selling a home with our alternative method isn’t for everybody and that’s OK! That’s why there are Real Estate Professionals available to you.

In any case, just about everybody will answer, “YES”, to this question. The final decision will need to be based on your personal preference and situation.

If previous answers indicated that hiring a Realtor at 6-7% is best for you, great! Give us a call if you’d like us to help you find a great one. If your preferences indicated that you want to be more involved and are looking to save a great deal of commission dollars, great! Give us a call and let’s talk. No commitments – No cost to find out which way is best for you!
